Subject: Re: Eunice Tuller Case & Relationship to Bella & Amos Tuller

I'd done a liitle digging re: the Tullers a few years back. I know Amos Tuller (and wife Elizabeth) never lived on Lot 10 of the Union Co. lands. They sold it to John Carlisle in 1808. The sale was acknowledged before Calvin Barber, Justice of the Peace, in Hartford Co., CN. Carlisle and his wife sold Lot 10 to Nathan Carpenter, Jr. in 1814. This deed was acknowledged before the Justice of the Peace in Ross Co., OH. [Remember, Nathan Carpenter, Jr. was married to George Case's daughter, Electa (Seth Case's niece).] Nathan and Electa sold 70 of the 100 acres in Lot 10 to Electa's dad, George Case in 1815. This was the land west of the Olentangy. Nathan and Electa kept the 30 acres on the east side of the river (where Klingbeil's sheep farm is today).

It appears the Cases and Tullers have been linked together from their arrival in America or pretty darn close to then. The Case patriarch (John Case who m. Sarah Spencer) had a dau. named Elizabeth in 1658. She married John Tuller in 1684. Their son Elijah Tuller (b. 1725/26 in Simsbury, CN) m. Sarah Case in 1751. Elijah and Sarah Tuller's first-born son was Bela Tuller, whom you mentioned. It is confusing; but there was another Elijah Tuller who married another Sarah Case. That Elijah was born in 1744. Sarah was born in 1746. Both in Simsbury. It was out of this union that Amos Tuller was born in 1770. He m. 1) Elizabeth Abernathy and 2) Temperance Case. Amos died in 1842. I have yet to find his name on early Franklin or Delaware Co. tax records so I wonder if he ever moved from Simsbury. (Bela's does show up.) Elijah Tuller (b. 1744) was Eunice Tuller Case's brother, making him a brother-in-law to Seth Case. This also means that Amos Tuller was Seth and Eunice Tuller Case's nephew.

I also believe that the Sarah Case who m. Elijah Tuller (b. 1744) (Eunice's brother) was the sister of Jonathan Case, Jr. of the Union Company.

Bela Tuller came to Worthington in 1804 as a part of the Scioto Co. He was married to Lydia Holcomb. (He had a son named Holcomb Tuller.) Bela is always listed as a non-proprietor on his Union Co. lands. In fact, in 1812, Bela moved his family from Worthington closer toward Dublin, OH (along what is today Sawmill Road in Franklin Co.). Bela died in the 1820's.

I don't know if this helps; but it's all I am able to dig up from my stuff right now. I have long tried to find out who Roswell Tuller was. He settled here on Lot 9 (Joseph Sage's original lot) as early as 1808. I have a quit claim deed dated 1828 that says Sarah Tuller was the widow of Roswell Tuller. Sarah Tuller also owned land in Lot 10 and Lot 14. In 1814 when things were being settled by the heirs of Jonathan Case, a Louisa shows up as the "wife of Roswell Tuller of Liberty Twp." So, either Roswell lost Louisa, his first wife, then married Sarah...or...there were two Roswell Tullers. Don't know yet. All I know for sure is that there was intermarriage galore with all of the members of the Union Company and Scioto Company. Also with the Carpenters. I'd like to know more about any relationship between the Union Co. and Nathan Carpenter, Sr. prior to moving here.

From info I received years ago from Louise Cornish, here are Seth Case's brothers and sisters (parents are listed as John and Sarah Barber Case):
John m. Chloe Owen
Giles died age 7
(Seth m. Eunice Tuller)
Sarah m. Elisha Cornish

1/23/2005

Asa m. Sarah Robe (she was probably connected to Robes of Scioto Company in Worthington)
Mary m. 1) Silas Case, 2) Capt. Uriah Case
Giles m. Dorcas Humphrey*
George m. Electa Moore
Levi m. Polly Humphrey

Don't know anything about the book you mentioned. In fact, after writing this email, I am so confused that my head's spinning. Hope you can make some sense of it! Best of luck.

Subject: Re: Eunice Tuller Case & Relationship to Bella & Amos Tuller

I'd done a liitle digging re: the Tullers a few years back. I know Amos Tuller (and wife Elizabeth) never lived on Lot 10 of the Union Co. lands. They sold it to John Carlisle in 1808. The sale was acknowledged before Calvin Barber, Justice of the Peace, in Hartford Co., CN. Carlisle and his wife sold Lot 10 to Nathan Carpenter, Jr. in 1814. This deed was acknowledged before the Justice of the Peace in Ross Co., OH. [Remember, Nathan Carpenter, Jr. was married to George Case's daughter, Electa (Seth Case's niece).] Nathan and Electa sold 70 of the 100 acres in Lot 10 to Electa's dad, George Case in 1815. This was the land west of the Olentangy. Nathan and Electa kept the 30 acres on the east side of the river (where Klingbeil's sheep farm is today).

It appears the Cases and Tullers have been linked together from their arrival in America or pretty darn close to then. The Case patriarch (John Case who m. Sarah Spencer) had a dau. named Elizabeth in 1658. She married John Tuller in 1684. Their son Elijah Tuller (b. 1725/26 in Simsbury, CN) m. Sarah Case in 1751. Elijah and Sarah Tuller's first-born son was Bela Tuller, whom you mentioned. It is confusing; but there was another Elijah Tuller who married another Sarah Case. That Elijah was born in 1744. Sarah was born in 1746. Both in Simsbury. It was out of this union that Amos Tuller was born in 1770. He m. 1) Elizabeth Abernathy and 2) Temperance Case. Amos died in 1842. I have yet to find his name on early Franklin or Delaware Co. tax records so I wonder if he ever moved from Simsbury. (Bela's does show up.) Elijah Tuller (b. 1744) was Eunice Tuller Case's brother, making him a brother-in-law to Seth Case. This also means that Amos Tuller was Seth and Eunice Tuller Case's nephew.

I also believe that the Sarah Case who m. Elijah Tuller (b. 1744) (Eunice's brother) was the sister of Jonathan Case, Jr. of the Union Company.

Bela Tuller came to Worthington in 1804 as a part of the Scioto Co. He was married to Lydia Holcomb. (He had a son named Holcomb Tuller.) Bela is always listed as a non-proprietor on his Union Co. lands. In fact, in 1812, Bela moved his family from Worthington closer toward Dublin, OH (along what is today Sawmill Road in Franklin Co.). Bela died in the 1820's.

I don't know if this helps; but it's all I am able to dig up from my stuff right now. I have long tried to find out who Roswell Tuller was. He settled here on Lot 9 (Joseph Sage's original lot) as early as 1808. I have a quit claim deed dated 1828 that says Sarah Tuller was the widow of Roswell Tuller. Sarah Tuller also owned land in Lot 10 and Lot 14. In 1814 when things were being settled by the heirs of Jonathan Case, a Louisa shows up as the "wife of Roswell Tuller of Liberty Twp." So, either Roswell lost Louisa, his first wife, then married Sarah...or...there were two Roswell Tullers. Don't know yet. All I know for sure is that there was intermarriage galore with all of the members of the Union Company and Scioto Company. Also with the Carpenters. I'd like to know more about any relationship between the Union Co. and Nathan Carpenter, Sr. prior to moving here.

From info I received years ago from Louise Cornish, here are Seth Case's brothers and sisters (parents are listed as John and Sarah Barber Case):
John m. Chloe Owen
Giles died age 7
(Seth m. Eunice Tuller)
Sarah m. Elisha Cornish

1/23/2005

Asa m. Sarah Robe (she was probably connected to Robes of Scioto Company in Worthington)
Mary m. 1) Silas Case, 2) Capt. Uriah Case
Giles m. Dorcas Humphrey*
George m. Electa Moore
Levi m. Polly Humphrey
Judah m. Ruth Higley
Abigail m. Asa Hoskins

*To confuse things further, Lemuel Humphrey of Union Company was married to a Dorcas Case who was not Giles Case's widow! This Dorcas Case was the dau. of Isaac Case, Jr. and Dorcas Moses.)

Don't know anything about the book you mentioned. In fact, after writing this email, I am so confused that my head's spinning. Hope you can make some sense of it! Best of luck.

Subject: Eunice Tuller Case & Relationship to Bella & Amos Tuller

Hi Judi:

I am still trying to figure out something about why or how Seth Case was buried on Lot 10.

I would like to prove if there is a relationship between Eunice Tuller Case (Seth Case's wife) and Bella Tuller who originally purchased Lot 8 and Amos Tuller who originally purchased Lot 10. I am assuming there was a relationship since right now we are assuming Seth Case was buried on Lot 10: "first lot north of George Case's farm."

The relationship would begin to explain why or how Seth ended up being buried on Lot 10.

I have written to the New England Masonic Lodge to see if they have and would any info on Seth Case's burial.

Are you familiar with a book or CD intitled John Case & His Descendant, 1991? I see it quoted quite a bit. Do you know where I can get a copy?

Sorry to keep bugging you but who else can I ask?

Thanks again,

Dick Converse
